GALASHIELS ACADEMY, GALASHIELS

SATURDAY 24TH OCTOBER 1987

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT
OF THE SCOTTISH CROSS COUNTRY UNION

It gives me great pleasure, on behalf of the Union, to welcome all athletes, officials and spectators from all parts of Scotland, to Galashiels in the heart of the Borders where the venue is Galashiels Academy set in beautiful surroundings.

The National Relay Championships see another large entry this year with the popularity of our sport growing every year

On behalf of the Union I would like to thank Tom Kerr and Duncan McLaren, the Joint Conveners, and their organising committee for what I trust will be an enjoyable afternoon's sport

My personal thanks to all officials and 'helpers' for today's event

May I also take the opportunity to remind everyone that this the first National Championship under the new Age Group qualifying date of 1st January 1988

I wish you all a most enjoyable afternoon's sport and a safe journey home

Fred McCluskie
