WELCOME

It is with great pleasure that the Road Running and Cross Country Commission bring this year's National Cross Country Relay Championships to the Beach Park, Irvine. The adjoining facilities and support given by the staff in the Magnum Leisure Centre along with a warm welcome from North Ayrshire Council make it an ideal venue.

We are fortunate today to have financial backing from Stagecoach which helps greatly towards the organisation and smooth running of the event.

Above all, we must thank the host of people who have put in many hours of time and effort helping the Championships Convenor, James Young, to stage these championships.

Finally I would like to thank you for coming here to Irvine today for what I am sure will be a very enjoyable experience.

Eleanor Gunstone

Convenor, Road Running & Cross Country Commission

COUNCILLOR STEWART DEWAR'S WELCOMING ADDRESS

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all competitors and their supporters to this, the 1998 Scottish Cross Country Relay Championships, here at the Irvine Beach Park and Magnum Leisure Centre.

The Beach Park and Magnum Leisure Centre have proven to be an ideal venue for major cross country events, providing excellent outdoor and indoor facilities for both organisers and competitors.

Over the years, the Local Authority has been justifiably proud of the links which have been forged with the Scottish Athletic Federation in respect to National Championships. I am confident that, as in the past, this partnership will ensure the success of this year's Relay Championships.

Each competitor and team will no doubt have their own targets to aim at during the course of today's Championships. With this in mind, I take the opportunity to wish each of them an enjoyable and successful day.
