MR RODDY DEVON

PRESIDENT

SCOTTISH CROSS COUNTRY UNION 1979-80

Many feet have trod the turf, covered the plough, and conquered the obstacles since our first championship 83 years ago. This year the same atmosphere will prevail, excitement, eagerness and hope. On behalf of the union I welcome you all, competitors, officials and spectators as you take part in our big day.

Thanks are due to the Organising Committee who have been responsible for the arrangements; Magnum Leisure Centre; Cunninghame District Council; Irvine Development Corporation; our sponsors, Renault U.K. Ltd., and all who serve us today.

Let us go to it and deserve success.

MR MATTHEW BROWN

PROVOST

CUNNINGHAME DISTRICT COUNCIL

Cross Country running, apart from being one of the toughest, is also one of the loneliest sports in the world. The roar of the crowd occurs mainly at the beginning and at the end and encouragement at the most difficult part is scarce. It is bearing this in mind and the determined calibre of athletes it breeds, that we, in Cunninghame and Irvine feel especially honoured to be chosen for the third time as a venue by the Scottish Cross Country Union.

With the World Championships in Paris this year, together with the Olympics in Moscow, this, the 83rd Scottish National Championships, holds a special significance and, who knows, there might be gold over the next hill!

To all the visitors and their families we extend a warm welcome and hope that they will feel at home both within The Magnum and the Beach Park. It gives us immense pleasure to see these facilities being enjoyed by visitors, especially during events such as this.

To all the athletes—please remember try-try harder, because while everyone cannot win—in the attempt courage is the greatest virtue of them all.

FOREWORD

By

JAMES D. MARQUIS, MANAGING DIRECTOR
IRVINE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

It gives me great pleasure, on behalf of Irvine Development Corporation, to welcome contestants and spectators to today's Championships.

The Corporation, which is pleased to give financial and other assistance to all such events, has always been deeply conscious of the vital role which sporting and leisure activities can play in the life of a community.

It is particularly gratifying that today's Championships are being staged in the Beach Park, which only a few short years ago was an area of dereliction and industrial despoilation.

Today an increasing number of sporting and leisure activities are being staged in the Park, which — like the adjacent Magnum Centre — is becoming more and more widely known not only in Scotland but throughout the U.K. and abroad.

Irvine is fortunate to have this new 150-acre parkland plus Magnum with its swimming pools, theatre, ice rink, bowling and other facilities, in a setting close to many miles of unspoiled beaches and harbour facilities.

We believe that the whole concept can help secure for the New Town a leading role in the sporting and leisure activities of the whole region; and — despite the financial constraints which we all face in these difficult times — there are still many more activities which can, we hope, be introduced.

In conclusion, may I wish everyone an exciting day's sport and hope that Irvine will once again prove to be an excellent host to its visitors.
